Exploring Paris Ethnic Roots

Paris has long been a sanctuary and source of inspiration for Black artists, writers, musicians, and intellectuals from around the world—especially African-Americans who found in the city a place of creative freedom and racial refuge. Today, the Black Paris Experience offers travelers a chance to explore this dynamic legacy through history, art, music, cuisine, and community.

🎯 Must-do Experiences:

- Eiffel Tower, Notre-Dame Cathedral, Louvre Museum
- Visit Josephine Baker's former haunts, where the American-born entertainer, activist, and French Resistance hero broke barriers and dazzled crowds at the Folies Bergère.
- Walk in the footsteps of James Baldwin in neighborhoods like Saint-Germain-des-Prés, where cafés and jazz clubs once buzzed with revolutionary ideas and artistic expression.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Curated experiences designed for all travelers
Beautiful, handpicked accommodations
Cultural excursions, local cuisine, and time to unwind
Lifelong memories with a community of adventurous travelers
